A Palm Beach Estate Collection with Range, Character & Style

Welcome to the Palm Beach Antique to Modern Estate Sale, a distinctive auction experience bringing together fine art, sculpture, antiques, decorative objects, modern and contemporary design, collectibles, and estate furnishings in one thoughtfully assembled sale. From refined traditional pieces to bold modern statements, the collection reflects the character of Palm Beach estates - elegant, eclectic, sophisticated, and full of discovery.

This carefully curated auction gives collectors, interior designers, art enthusiasts, dealers, and first-time bidders the opportunity to explore property spanning a wide range of periods, materials, and artistic traditions. The sale combines works by internationally recognized artists, sought-after names, and regional favorites with unique decorative pieces and furnishings chosen for their visual appeal, craftsmanship, provenance potential, and ability to transform a room or collection.

Whether your goal is to acquire investment-quality artwork, find a memorable focal point for a residence or office, add depth to an established collection, or simply enjoy the thrill of uncovering something unexpected, this auction offers an inviting mix of exceptional property at many collecting levels.

From traditional and historic works to contemporary statements, the sale is designed to reward curiosity. Each lot offers the chance to acquire something with visual impact, craftsmanship, personality, or collecting interest.

Highlights Across the Sale

Fine Art & Works on Paper

Explore original paintings, drawings, mixed-media works, and limited-edition prints ranging from traditional landscapes and figural subjects to modern abstraction, fashion-inspired imagery, and contemporary compositions. The variety of styles allows seasoned collectors and emerging buyers alike to discover works that speak to their individual taste.

Sculpture & Decorative Arts

The sale includes sculptural and decorative objects selected for their form, craftsmanship, and presence. Figurative works, distinctive accessories, unusual objects, and artistic accents offer opportunities to bring dimension and personality to both classic and contemporary interiors.

Antiques, Furnishings & Design

Estate furnishings and decorative pieces bridge antique craftsmanship with modern design. From traditional wood furniture and period-inspired forms to statement pieces with a more contemporary sensibility, the auction is designed to appeal to decorators, collectors, and anyone creating an interior with character.

Collectibles & One-of-a-Kind Finds

Part of the excitement of an estate auction is discovering the unexpected. Collectibles, conversation pieces, decorative curiosities, and distinctive estate objects make this sale especially rewarding for bidders who enjoy finding something that cannot be duplicated in a conventional retail setting.
